Senator Dan Quayle
524 Hart Building
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Quayle,

I am writing in regard to a subject close to my heart. Being a Christian and a Lutheran, I have long been interested and concerned as to the fate of Raul Wallenberg. I have never believed him to be dead but to be a prisoner of the Russians.

Now at long last the public has been made aware of this heroic man's life. We must seize the opportunity to find out the truth. Not just close our eyes and minds and accept the lies of the Communists.

I believe you to be a man of compassion and I beg you to become involved in this truly worthwhile cause.

No man of conscience can disregard this crime against humanity. This man did so much in the name of humanity.

As my representative I implore you to use your power and influence to bring justice to this mans case.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,
